Department of Corrections

Article 13.—Disciplinary Procedure

44-13-706. Administrative review board to review and make recommendations.

The administrative segregation review board established under the applicable internal management policy and procedure of the secretary may review the inmates held in disciplinary segregation. This board may, at any time, recommend to the warden or designee that the disciplinary segregation sentence of an inmate be modified to suspend the remaining segregation time based on a finding of the administrative disciplinary segregation review board that the inmate has maintained exceptionally good behavior while in segregation. The remaining segregation time of the inmate's sentence may be suspended by the warden or designee, acting on the recommendation of the administrative segregation review board.

This amendment shall be effective on and after February 15, 2002.
