

Kansas Administrative Regulations

Department of Administration

Article 16.—Travel Reimbursement

1-16-7. Airline travel accommodations.

When the administrative head of the agency determines that airline travel is the most economical or advantageous to the state, the use of airline travel may be authorized. The most economical mode of airline travel is considered to be tourist or economy class. If tourist or economy class accommodations are not available, a statement from the airline or travel agency must be submitted on or with the voucher.
