State Fire Marshal

Article 7.—Flammable And Combustible Liquids

22-7-10. Emergency response training.

(a) Each employee involved in fuel transfer into motor vehicles at a retail service station, including attendants and cashiers of self-service stations, upon employment and at least annually thereafter shall receive training from a responsible facility representative or industry organization on the proper procedures to be used in case of fire, overfill, or fuel spill situation. Such training shall include information regarding improper transfer of fuels, types of improper and illegal containers, and instruction of the proper use of fire extinguishers. Documentation of such training shall be maintained and shall be available for inspection upon request by a deputy state fire marshal.

(b) Each establishment or facility involved in fuel transfer into motor vehicles at retail service stations shall have emergency instructions covering fire, overfill or fuel spill procedures posted and readily available in the vicinity of all control consoles or attendant locations. Emergency telephone numbers shall be included on the instructions. The owner or designee of each establishment or facility is responsible for developing and posting the instructions.
