Kansas Department of Transportation

Article 27.—Junkyard and Salvage Control

36-27-12. Zoning policy.

Local government zoning ordinances or regulations affecting a salvage storage location shall not be abrogated or overruled by actions of the beautification administrator. Any owner with a storage location that was in existence prior to the passing of an ordinance or regulation forbidding use of the location for salvage storage shall be approved and certified by the administrator subject to salvage control regulations of the secretary of transportation. If at any time the owner or owners of a salvage storage location is required to abate and discontinue storage of salvage at a non-conforming location due to enforcement action brought about by a zoning authority, the certification of compliance shall be revoked by the beautification administrator. Any application for a certificate of compliance of a storage location, which, at the time of the creation of the location is not in conformance with applicable zoning ordinances or regulations of a local public authority, shall be denied by the beautification administrator.

Editor's Note:

Effective August 15, 1975, the state salvage board was abolished and its powers and duties transferred to the secretary of transportation. At the secretary's request, the board's regulations were transferred to this article.
