Article 1000.—Orders of Restitution and Expenses

45-1000-3. Manner of payments.

If payments have been ordered as a condition of parole, the parole officer may monitor the payments in the same manner as that for any other condition of parole. If a change of circumstances makes payments according to the established schedule unworkable, the parole officer may change the schedule as long as the adjusted schedule still makes it possible for the offender to make all payments before the inmate's discharge. If compelling circumstances develop that render the plan of reparation and the schedule of payment unworkable, the parolee may apply to the board to be released from the payment order.
