Mined-Land Conservation and Reclamation (KDHE)

Article 15.—Inspections and Enforcement

47-15-4. Injunctive relief.

The attorney general may be requested by the secretary to institute any civil action for relief, including a permanent or temporary injunction, and a restraining order or any other order, whenever, in violation of the state act, these regulations, or any condition of an exploration approval or permit, anyone does the following:

(a) violates, fails to comply with, or refuses to comply with any order or decision of the secretary or secretary's designee;

(b) interferes with, hinders, or delays the secretary or secretary's designee in carrying out provisions of the state act or these regulations; or

(c) refuses to perform the following:

(1) admit the secretary or secretary's designee to a mine;

(2) permit inspection of a mine by the secretary or secretary's designee;

(3) furnish any required information or report;

(4) permit access to or copying of any required records; or

(5) permit inspection of monitoring equipment.

(Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 49-405; effective, E-81-30, Oct. 8, 1980; effective May 1, 1981; amended Feb. 11, 1991; amended May 2, 1997.)
