(b) Each offender on conditional release status shall be placed under parole supervision in the same manner as that for other parolees and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as those for other parolees. If the parole officer establishes probable cause that an offender has violated the conditions of conditional release, the offender may be returned to confinement, subject to the opportunity for a final revocation hearing and to an order of the board, which shall be considered in the same manner as that for a parole violator. The offender shall have the same rights at the final revocation hearing as those of a parolee under K.A.R. 45-500-2.

(c) Each parolee who achieves conditional release status while on parole shall continue under supervision of the parolee's parole officer. The conditions of parole shall not be changed by the fact that the parolee reached conditional release status.
