Article 25.—Testimonial Events and Other Political Events

19-25-1. Testimonial events.

When a testimonial event is held for the benefit of more than one candidate, except when an individual contributor dedicates a contribution to a particular candidate, the value of each contribution or in-kind contribution shall be attributed to each candidate in the same ratio as that by which the candidates share the profits from the event, or, if there are no profits, in the same ratio by which the candidates share the expenses of the event. An event is held to raise funds if it is intended to do so, or if not intended to do so, if the effect is nonetheless attained.
