

Kansas Administrative Regulations

Adjutant General's Department

Article 1.—Armories

56-1-5. Variance.

If exceptional circumstances make strict conformity with K.A.R. 56-1, et seq., impractical or not feasible, any person, community, or government agency may submit a written request to the adjutant general for an exception. The military advisory board may be given the opportunity to review the request and make appropriate recommendations to the adjutant general. The adjutant general may grant an exception in the interest of public health, safety, and welfare.

(Authorized by K.S.A. 48-907, K.S.A. 1982 Supp. 48-301; implementing K.S.A. 48-204, 48-304, 48-907, L. 1982, ch. 225; effective May 1, 1983.)
