State Board of Technical Professions

Article 9.—Education

66-9-1. Architectural curriculum approved by the board.

"A college or university program that is adequate in its preparation of students for the practice of architecture" means a baccalaureate or master's curriculum accredited by the national architectural accreditation board (NAAB). Any other architectural curriculum which has not been accredited by NAAB but has been evaluated and found to be of an equivalent standard, may be reviewed and accepted by the board.
