Agricultural Labor Relations Board

Article 2.—Procedure

12-2-5. Validity of showing of interest.

a. The proof of interest submitted shall not be furnished to any of the parties. The board shall determine the adequacy of the showing of interest and such decision shall not be subject to collateral attack at a hearing before the board. Proof of interest shall not be required until after unit determination has been made by the board.

b. All agricultural employers shall be required to furnish the board with an alphabetical listing of all employees within the appropriate unit as expeditiously as possible, not to exceed thirty days after the filing of a petition for a certification election following unit determination, unless otherwise directed by the board or its agent.

(Authorized by K.S.A. 44-823(d), K.S.A. 1977 Supp. 44-820(d); effective May 1, 1978.)
