

Kansas Administrative Regulations

Kansas Department of Revenue—Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control

Article 17.—Miscellaneous

14-17-2. Sacramental wine, importation, sale, transportation, and delivery.

No license of any kind shall be required of any person to ship wine into this state which is to be used exclusively for sacramental purposes, when such wine is shipped by common carrier and consigned to any bona fide priest, pastor, bishop, rabbi, preacher or minister of the gospel of any religious faith or denomination, and the container, barrel, case, or carton thereof is plainly and legibly labeled: "Wine to be used exclusively for sacramental purposes"; and no licenses or transportation permit, shall be required for the importation and the delivery, transportation, or distribution within this state of any such wine when it is consigned to any such bona fide priest, pastor, bishop, rabbi, preacher or minister of the gospel, and the container, barrel, case, or carton is plainly and legibly labeled as above required.

(Authorized by K.S.A. 41-211, K.S.A. 1965 Supp. 41-210; effective Jan. 1, 1966.)

 Authenticated Kansas Administrative Regulation *****