Kansas Department of Transportation

Article 27.—Junkyard and Salvage Control

36-27-3. Transfers of ownership of certified locations.

When a transfer occurs in the ownership of a certified salvage storage location, the following will be required:

(a) If a transfer in ownership does not constitute a change in the entire ownership, the owner or owners shall apply for a correction of the owner records at no additional fee. Transfers of ownership may include the following:

(1) The addition of a partner to the business;

(2) the withdrawal of a partner from the business or the sale and transfer of the interest of a partner; or

(3) ownership and operation of the business by a surviving spouse, personal representative, heir, legatee of the deceased owner or one or more of them.

(b) If the change in ownership constitutes a total change in ownership of the certified location, the new owner or owners shall apply for a new certificate of compliance. The application shall be accompanied by the annual or semiannual fee, whichever is applicable.

Editor's Note:

Effective August 15, 1975, the state salvage board was abolished and its powers and duties transferred to the secretary of transportation. At the secretary's request, the board's regulations were transferred to this article.
