Mined-Land Conservation and Reclamation (KDHE)

Article 2.—Meaning of Terms

47-2-58. "Significant, imminent environmental harm to land, air or water resources" defined.

A "significant, imminent environmental harm to land, air or water resources" shall include the following elements.

(a) An environmental harm is an adverse impact on land, air or water resources, including plant and animal life.

(b) An environmental harm is imminent if a condition, practice, or violation exists that is causing harm or may reasonably be expected to cause such harm at any time before the end of the reasonable abatement time that would be set under these regulations and the state law.

(c) An environmental harm is significant if that harm is appreciable and not immediately reparable.

(Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 49-405; effective May 1, 1980; amended May 2, 1997.)
