

Kansas Administrative Regulations

Kansas Department of Revenue—Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control

Article 22.—Caterer

14-22-13. Removal of liquor from event premises prohibited; alcoholic liquor sales by caterer and drinking establishment licensees.

A caterer shall not sell alcoholic liquor for removal from or consumption off of the event premises. The removal of alcoholic liquor sold by the caterer from the premises of an event or from the principal place of business of the caterer, other than transportation to an event, is prohibited. A caterer who also holds a license as a drinking establishment may sell alcoholic liquor upon the drinking establishment's licensed premises.
